OOOOH! Do my feet hurt!!

. . . "76 Trombones!!!"

Reeely!!!

Brian, where are you?

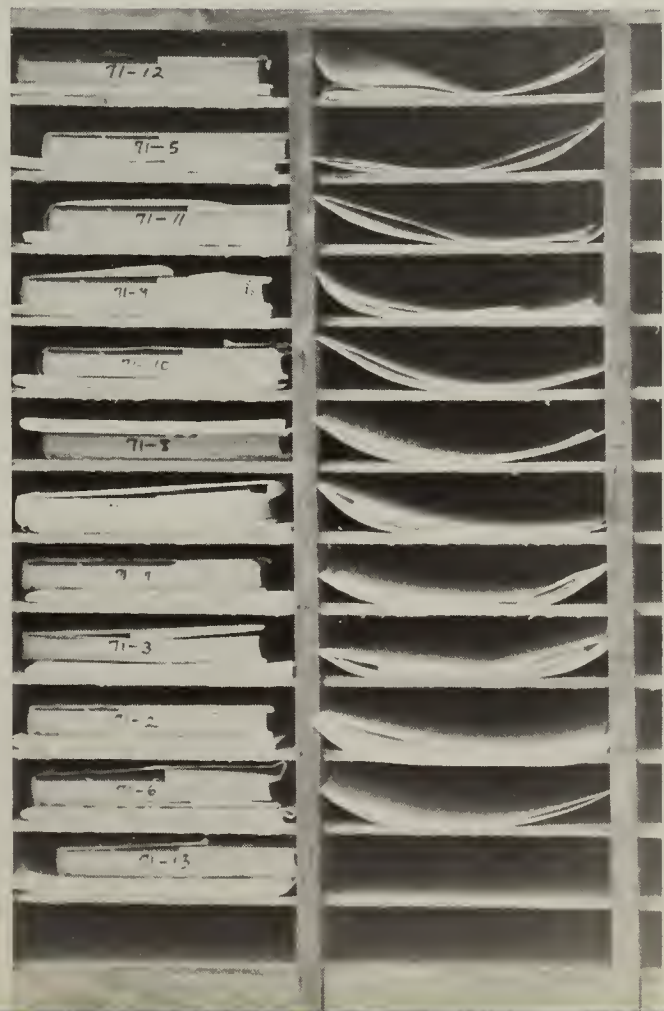

. . . And then he went this way . . . And

WALK ON QUINCY N.Q.H.S.

1, 2, 3 . . . 1, 2, 3 . . . 1, 2, 3 . . .

Spazzzz . . .

Ve-e-rrry interesting.

Wing'em

Amen

Peek-A-Boo!!!

Z-Z-Z-Z-Z-Z

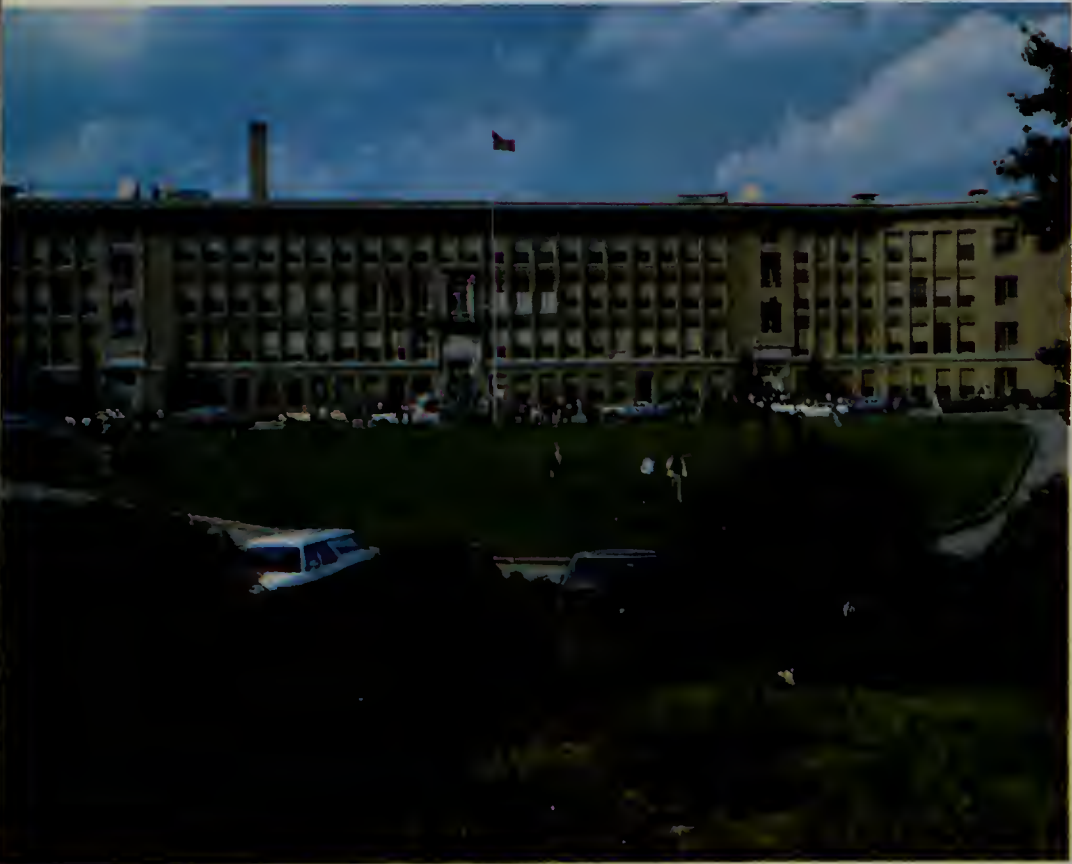

But I don't even know you!

Mudcat!!!

Now just hold still for a second . . .

But Michael said . . .

Guess What's In My Desk.

$M(n-1)(S_283+2y-S)/1/85(x^2y^3)$

Duh!

Quiet-t-t!!

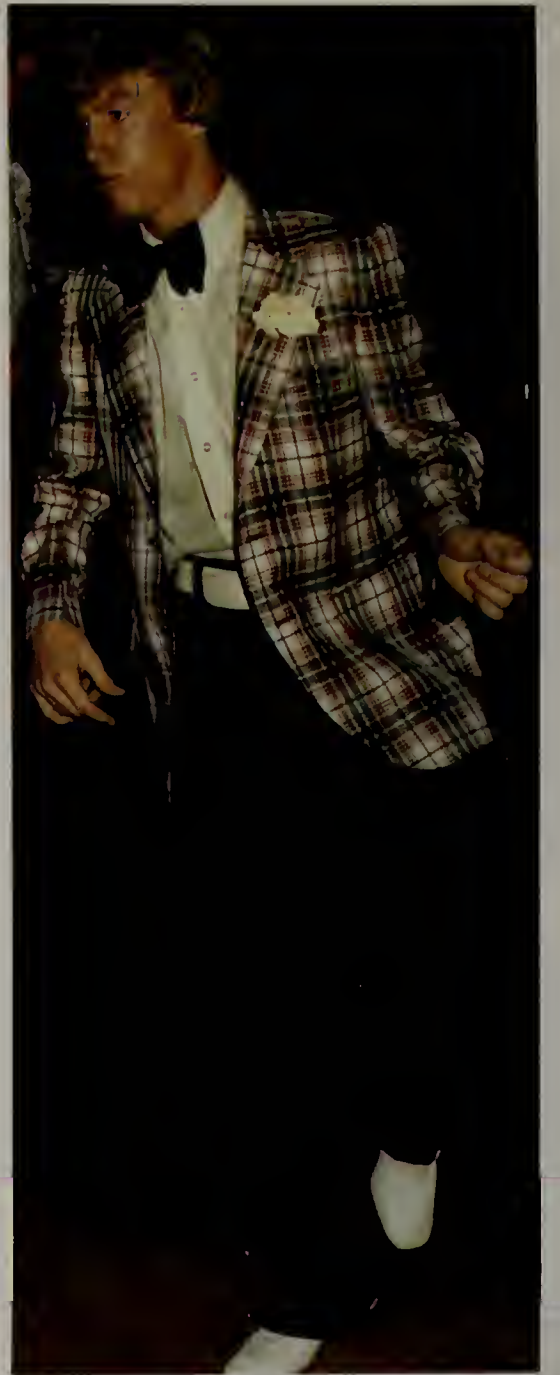

Go Away!!!

TA, DA

I'm Whitey . . . God Almighty

. . . And then she said . . .

Me? You're kidding.

A black and white photograph of a large crowd of people, likely at a sports event, with the word "SPORTS" repeated vertically in large, bold, white capital letters over the image. The word is repeated 12 times, stacked on top of each other, creating a strong visual rhythm. The background shows a dense crowd of people, some with their arms raised, suggesting a lively atmosphere. The overall tone is energetic and celebratory.

CLASS WILL OF 1976

CLASS WILL

1. To the future seniors we leave the convenient homerooms on the same floor as the dean's office.
2. To Mr. Small, we leave a bag of toy soldiers.
3. To the mechanically inclined of the student body, we leave all the dented and mangled lockers for them to figure out how to shut.
4. To Mr. DeMarco, we leave Kurt Vonnegut.
5. To the future student body of north we leave double sessions with Quincy High School. (Romp'em Raiders)
6. To Mr. Turbayne we leave a gold and brown pinto wagon.
7. To Mrs. Krabek, we leave a book entitled "How to Teach Math in 3 Easy Lessons.
8. To Ms. Hailman we leave a lecture hall equipped with transparencies and an overhead projector.
9. To all the non-smokers we leave oxygen masks for them to use upon entering the Girls' or Boys' Rooms.
10. To all the shop classes, we leave a million splinters.
11. To Matty Constantino I leave an order for a pizza to go no crust and sliced in 6 pieces because, "I don't think I can eat eight." B.P.
12. To Mr. Fitzgerald we leave a quest to find the "Grinch who Stole Christmas".
12. To Mr. Gliniewicz, we leave a rock cabinet.
14. To Mr. Cotto, we leave a complete set of Shakespeare.
15. To Ms. Martyak, we leave a pointer.
16. To future girls' sports teams, we leave uniforms just like the boys' teams. . . There will be Monday's uniform. Tuesday's uniform. Wednesday's uniform etc. . . . M.N.
17. To the new NQHS, we leave one bronzed wood desk to be placed in a glass case in the front lobby. Those ancient beauties should serve as good tourist attractions.
18. Alongside these desks we would like to leave one of the warped stairs. Imprinted in those stairs are marks of where ancient generations have trodd.
19. To the future spirit committees we leave some surplus Joanne McCor-mack Spirit.
20. To Mr. Ryan, Trigonometry class mods 7-9 leave a quiet class.
21. To Mr. Sadowski, we leave a sarcasm reducer pill.
22. To Mr. Pelletier, we leave a yearbook that makes itself.
23. To Ms. Bollen, we leave a book on how to diagnose plants.

...GOODBYE NORTH!!!

Karen,
Don't forget all the good times at North. Remember the time you & the devils hope you have a good time on the from weekend. Don't forget 300 good times. He got stuck and you guys break. Good luck next year. I'll probably see you around.
